DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 52, 53, 56 and 74-77 are objected to because of the following informalities: Line 4 of claim 52 recites "based the expiration condition". This appears to be a typographical error. The examiner suggests adding --on--between "based" and "the". Similarly, line 4 of claim 53 recites this language.

Line 2 of claim 56 recites "includes status data related an expiration criterion". This appears to be a typographical error. The examiner suggests adding --to--between "related" and "an". Line 8 of claim 74 recites "determining a bonus payout". It appears that it should be --determine-- instead of "determining".

Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 50-77 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-44 of U.S. Patent No.

6,203,430. The conflicting claims are not identical. However, they are not patentably distinct from each other. The instant claim features are not worded in the exact same way. Nonetheless, the limitations of the instant claims including a method and a gaming device with a processor that tracks and counts the occurrence of a tracked symbol; increments or decrements the count value associated with the occurrence of the tracked symbol and associates an expiration condition and bonus payout based on the occurrence of the tracked symbol are taught by the claims of USPN 6,203,430.

Art Unit: 3714

Examiner's Response

Applicant has canceled claim 1, which was the only pending claim and has recited new claims 50-77. The examiner has indicated a non-statutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection, above, in view of USPN 6,203,430. The examiner has updated the search and found the instant claimed subject matter of "determining a bonus payout based on a number of occurrences of at least one tracked symbol counted in accordance with an expiration condition" to distinguish over the prior art cited in the IDS and the updated searched prior art. Therefore, as indicated in co-owned USPN 6,203,430 by the examiner, this subject matter is allowable subject matter.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3714

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
